Canada's top money managers came out to the recent launch of Bob Thompson's book, Stock Market Superstars. The cocktail reception was held at Canaccord Capital's offices in downtown Toronto, where Mr. Thompson is an alternative investment strategist and senior investment advisor -- when he is not writing books or columns.

The book focuses on conversations with 12 of the top money managers in Canada: Eric Sprott, Sprott Asset Management; Frank Mersch, Front Street Capital; Tom Stanley, Resolute Funds; Rohit Sehgal, Dynamic Funds; Peter Puccetti, Goodwood Inc.; Irwin Michael, I. A. Michael Investment Council Ltd.; Wayne Deans, Deans Knight Capital Management; John Thiessen, Vertex One Asset Management; Norman Lamarche, Front Street Capital; Tim McElvaine, McElvaine Investment Management; Allan Jacobs, Sprott Asset Management; and Randall Abramson, Trapeze Asset Management.

Mr. Thompson explores the mechanics and psychology of their trades. "I had a lot of fun doing the book because it allowed me to dig into the minds of some of Canada's best investors and at the same time hear their stories in an informative and sometimes hilarious manner," said Mr. Thompson.
